

Spring Fling 2010: SCTE goes to Bergamot Station

SCTE is a local affiliate of CATE (California Association of Teachers of English)

Saturday, April 17, 10: am—3:00 pm
at Bergamot Station
2525 Michigan Ave., Santa Monica, CA 90404

Join us for a day of inspired creativity and activities at Bergamot Station, Southern California's largest art gallery complex and cultural center, located on eight acres in the heart of Santa Monica featuring contemporary art galleries, The Santa Monica Museum of Art, architecture and design firms, a cafe, and a frame shop. Visit their website at www.bergamotstation.com.

10:00 am. Meet for a continental breakfast at Writers Boot Camp (Building i in the SW corner of Bergamot Station) and meet founder Jeffrey Gordon and his special guests. Learn about this entertainment-industry hotspot and the history of Bergamot Station. Visit their website at www.writersbootcamo.com.

After visiting Bergamot Station galleries and the Santa Monica Museum of Art where activities await you, meet for lunch at 1:00 pm. at the Bergamot Café, where Hollywood elite meet to eat during the week. Prizes will be awarded to activity winners.

All of this for only 20 dollars, and parking is free! We do need an accurate count for breakfast and lunch reservations, so please pay online at www.cateweb.org or return the application to Nancy Himel at 1125 ½ Appleton St., Long Beach, CA 90802. Call or email her with any questions at nancy@colorfulsky.com or (562) 436-5759. You may invite guests. All are welcome.
