Brown moved and Medford seconded the approval of CATE Resolution #3: CAHSEE test questions and prompts. MOTION CARRIED

Resolution: Therefore be it resolved that the California Association of Teachers of English urges the California Department of Education and the State Board of Education to enlist the assistance of experienced English Language Arts teachers, who are familiar with California state standards, and have worked with a variety of student skill levels, to review current and future CAHSEE questions and writing prompts to assure that they include clearly defined wording and instructions, are free of cultural, socio-economic and gender bias, are grade-level relevant, and are accessible to all students.

Brown read CATE Resolution #4

Brown moved and Karpowicz seconded the approval of CATE Resolution 4: CST Test Questions (all grades) and Essay Prompts (4th and 7th grades.) MOTION CARRIED.

Resolution: Therefore be it resolved that the California Association of Teachers of English urges the California Department of Education and the State Board of Education to enlist the assistance of experienced teachers who have a background in English, are familiar with California state standards, and have worked with a variety of student skill levels to review current and future CST questions and writing prompts to assure that they include clearly defined wording and instructions, are free of cultural, socio-economic and gender bias, are grade-level relevant, and are accessible to all students.

Fleetwood read CATE Resolution #5.

Fleetwood moved and Dunstan seconded approval of CATE Resolution #5: Grading of Writing on State-wide Standardized Tests. MOTION CARRIED

Resolution: Let it be resolved that the California Association of Teachers of English requests that the California Department of Education and State Board of Education have student writing graded in-state by experienced English Language Arts teachers, some of whom are currently in the classroom.

And let it be further resolved that two or more readings be given to the papers to ensure reliable scores are maintained.

McGlasson read CATE Resolution #6

McGlasson moved and Danielson seconded to accept CATE Resolution #6: 21st Century Literacies. MOTION CARRIED.

Resolution: Therefore let it be resolved that the California Association of Teachers of English asks that the California Department of Education assist with eliminating the digital divide in California schools to guarantee that all California students have access to computers with broadband connections in multiple school locations.

Cecil read CATE Resolution #7

Cecil moved and Clarke seconded approval of CATE Resolution #7: Support for

Journalism Teachers. MOTION CARRIED

Resolution: Therefore let it be resolved that the California Association of Teachers of English (CATE) supports protection for student media advisers from intimidation, harassment, termination, involuntary transfer, reassignment, removal or other discipline for refusing to suppress the legally protected expression of student journalists.

Let it be further resolved that CATE recommends that the California Department of Education and the State Board of Education compel school districts to develop freedom of expression policies within the framework of the First Amendment and the California Education Code. Such policies should include reasonable guidelines concerning adviser support of student expression, and which specifically restrain public schools from disciplinary action against advisers for supporting protected student expression.

Be it further resolved that CATE supports SB 1370 (Yee) which is the Journalism Teacher Protection Act.
