8. Standing Committee Meetings

A. Policy/Censorship - ANGUS DUNSTAN, Kathleen Cecil, Bob Chapman, Carrie Danielson, Carol Jago, Debra Martinez, Jayne Marlink, Bill Younglove, Jim Kliegl

1. Resolutions –To be heard
2. 4C’s Report (Bill)

Urged participation in Education Summit—“Racing to Open All Roads”;

Ed Source one day forum, March 19;

Yudof-UC Chancellor requested for 10,000 letters to the Governor
Reed released funds for “rainy day”,

College administrators are joining together for local actions—

March 4

Charter school discussion
 “State ‘assisted’ schools” vs. Public school

3. Debra Martinez
 Very little legislation dealing with education—See CTA Sponsored Legislation Flyers—

1. Eliminate 2nd grade testing,
2. Minimize disruption of immigration raids in classrooms,
3. Full-time vs. part-time instructors in the community colleges.
4. “Race to the Top”—are there enough districts applying for the state to participate? 40 out of 50 states have applied.
 Of those not participating, most are small states—except Texas.

4. Responsibilities for further political action:
 Carrie Danielson will email list of legislators on the education committee to members of our policy committee
 Jim Kliegl will divide the list and give each of us legislators to contact
 Bob Chapman will send an example letter to help write to legislators.

5. Angus Dunstan reported on research he has done about education policy
 National Board discussion--2/3 of National Board teachers are in Title I schools -Very little salary augmentation for NB
 School funding—Constitutional amendment to fund schools will probably be on ballot
 Tax oil companies for K-12

6. CATENet “How has funding crisis affected you?”—few responses (one)
 We need more submissions to CATENet
 English Companion Ning—There was a group on this topic

7. Common ELA Standards
 No mention of literature in standards
 Carol Jago is on the committee that reviews the work of the original group.
 Will common standards have an effect if the teacher training is not more rigorous and selective?
 Miles Meyers will be doing a session on common cores standards

1. 2010 Convention—discussed last-minute concerns
2. 2011 Convention—financial implications of contracts

Based on trends and results from 2010, 2011 will start $87, 865.00 in the red.

Payment due to Convention Center—contract has ambiguous clause

Decision needs to be made whether to cancel Convention Center

Decision needs to be made whether to cancel hotel
Committee recommends attempt to negotiate better contract

Motion: To authorize Punky Fristrom TO TRAVEL TO SACRAMENTO to re-open negotiations with the hotel-Michelle Berry; Seconded by Charleen Delfino; Discussion; Motion carried

Motion: To authorize Punky Fristrom to negotiate best deal for CATE 2011. Hope to keep Convention Center and hotel under contract or more drastic measures. Moved by Punky Fristrom; Seconded by Michelle Berry; Motion carried

Motion: To make the following changes and confirmations:

1. Continue with exhibits as in the past—authorize to rehire exhibits manager on the same terms.

2. Retain the ½ discount for local committee chairs' registration

3. Reduce the size of the flyer from 8 to 4 pages and explore electronic possibilities

4. Continue to have Friday night event

5. Continue to provide screens and/or internet connections but not provide overheads or LCD projectors

Moved by Punky Fristrom; Seconded by Liz McAninch; Motion carried

Consider making the following changes at the May meeting:

1. Eliminating a general session possibly replaced with breakouts

2. Might eliminate receptions or breakfasts.

3. Possibly reduce the program—or go electronic

4. Possibly no breakfasts

Announcement: Opening date for CATE 2011 proposals will be the Monday after 2010 Convention.

10. Standing Committee Meetings

A. Executive/Finance: - CHARLEEN DELFINO, Michelle Berry, Bob Chapman, Angus Dunstan, Anne Fristrom, Punky Fristrom, Jayne Marlink, Cheryl Hogue Smith, Jill Hamilton-Bunch

1. Begin 2010-11 Budget Planning

Brainstorming and suggestions for cost savings for upcoming year:

Raise dues

Change percentage that goes to local council

3 board meetings instead of 4

Online resolutions rather than by committee

Better communications

Fewer issues or smaller California English

Send any other ideas--

B. Publications: - LIZ MCANINCH, Kathleen Cecil, Jim Kliegl, Nancy Himel, Carol Jago, Ron Lauderbach, Bill Younglove

1. CATE Writing Contests

A. CATE Writing Contest: Committee drafted a prompt for the 2011 contest based on convention's theme, Never More Crucial.

A final version will be presented at the May meeting.

B. Professional Writing Contest:

1. Olga Kokinko, contest coordinator, asked Publications to present a motion to the board to replace monetary award to three winners with 1) first place winner to receive a registration to the annual convention and 2) second place winner to receive a one year membership in CATE.

Moved by Liz McAninch; Seconded by Jim Kliegl;

Motion carried.

2. Bill Younglove had copies of the Professional Contest prompt for the committee to read and approve. Publications approved the prompt with some minor revisions. Bill planned to make copies to distribute during the convention.

2. CATEnet

A. Publications committee recommends that CATE eliminate CATEnet-Moved by Liz McAninch; Seconded by Jim Kliegl; Motion Withdrawn

B. Publications Committee recommended asking Jake Stanford to monitor the site for a monthly fee of $200 until July 1. Board approved and asked Liz McAninch to contact Jake Stanford before the Sunday business meeting when the board would reconvene to approve the new offer if Jake accepted it.

3. Review CATEweb -general agreement that CATEweb has improved; we will continue to work on any problems that arise.

C. Membership: - JOAN WILLIAMS, Kathy Allen, Karen Brown, Carrie Danielson, Shannon Taylor, Richard Hockensmith, Kim Flachmann, Debra Martinez, Shelly Medford, Carol Surabian

1. Booth set-up--who, when, what

We are looking for things to jazz up the booth—Valentine’s Day?

Set up at 9:00.

2. Computers--check memberships, PowerPoint; We will be able to check membership—on the computer at membership booth.

3. Membership renewal/recruitment

System of reminders:

2 months before the membership expires—reminder, urged not to let it lapse—"renew online for your convenience"

1 month before renewal due --reminder will be sent with invoice "We don't want to lose you!"

1 month after—urgent/past due/ "We miss you."

4. PR work--who should do this?

We need to collect reasons why CATE is important.

Get out and recruit

Kim Flachmann suggests that CATE should oversee the units for Prof. Development-offered to assist in this

We need all councils to support one another’s membership efforts.

We need to create a PR person—Could this be the responsibility of a Member at Large? Ideas for promotion:

Create forms for everyone to use

Student journalists

Press releases

Award winners, events, student writers, press contacts

California English should have an article about the convention—more PR

Find a way to use journalism students to help report on activities

Resolutions Committee: Second Reading of proposed resolutions.

Committee will prepare dissemination of resolutions for council breakfasts and Sunday business meeting

Resolution #1 Commendation for 2010 Convention; Michelle Berry moved to accept, Liz McAninch seconded; Motion carried

Cheryl Hogue Smith moved to present this resolution to Annual Business meeting; Seconded by Charleen Delfino; Discussion; Call for the question; Motion carried to close discussion; Original motion carried with one nay.

Resolutions committee dismissed.

12. Old Business

Bill Younglove reported on his analysis of the 2009 Convention “tear offs”

Responses were very positive and interesting.

The things that are a factor for NOT attending are money and distance.

He wrote up a report.

Sense of the House motion to send the results of Bill’s report to as many of the “powers that be.”

In addition to print copy, can people testify to the benefits of professional development through CATE on film for publication and promotion?

Forms were created for legal release of comments and photos for CATE's use.

13. New Business

Berry moved to rescind the resignation of Cheryl Hogue-Smith; Seconded by Jill Hamilton-Bunch; Motion carried unanimously
