

SCTE Coming Attractions 2019

Consider joining us for these upcoming Southland events!

SCTE Board Meeting

Lakewood, CA

January 19, 2019

Want to learn more about the Southland Council of Teachers of English, plan events, and craft lasting resolutions? The SCTE Board of Directors meeting is open to all interested ELA professionals. We love new faces.

Parallels at the Core

Los Angeles, CA

February 5, 2019

Join SCTE for a LACMA workshop entitled “Parallels at the Core: Reading, Writing, and Visual Art” which will explore effective strategies for integrating visual arts with English Language Arts and literacy instruction. SCTE will follow up after the main workshop with a breakout session on constructing arguments inspired by art in LACMA’s collection. Tickets can be purchased at lacma.org/eveningsforeducators. Your $15 admission includes dinner, teaching materials, and complimentary parking.

CATE Convention

Burlingame, CA

February 22-24, 2019

The 61st Annual California Association of Teachers of English state convention promises to be inspiring. This year’s theme is “Voices of Literacy in Pursuit of Human Rights” and features major speakers such as Tommy Orange, Sarah McBride, and Ari Dolid. Join a thousand or so of your colleagues at the SFO Hyatt by registering at www.cateweb.org.

Spring Break Out!

South Bay

March, 2019

Stay tuned for details on our 2019 SCTE Spring Fling social event: a literary Escape Room in the South Bay!

For more information on all upcoming events, contact Jennifer Silver, SCTE President, at jennifersilver@yahoo.com or check in with our Facebook page at SCTE: Southland Council of Teachers of English.